Regulations of Friends Community House

Believing that Christianity concerns all of life and that no area of it should remain untouched by that uplifting force, and believing further that the recreational and social life of men should be guided into wholesome channels, we have constructed this house for parish and community use.

That it may carry out the purpose for which it was built, we, the first Governing Board, duly elected and so authorized by the Friends' Sunday School and the Westport Monthly Meeting of Friends, make these simple rules governing the activities in this house:

1. All who use this house are asked to remember that it is a Christian house, is the property of a Christian Church, and is to be used solely for Christian activities. All activities in this house are to be of a Christian character. All individual behavior in or near this house is to be of that same character.

2. There shall be no drinking of alcoholic liquors or beverages in this House or on its grounds. The Governing Board reserves the right to refuse entrance to anyone who violates this rule. Intoxicated persons or those with intoxicating liquors on their persons will on no occasion be admitted.

3. There shall be no smoking in this building.

4. There shall be no gambling in this building.
5. There shall be no public dances in this building.
6. All moving pictures shown in this building must be first passed on by the Governing Board or its representative.

7. All who use this House must agree to obey these rules. Any violations observed are to be reported to the Governing Board. Their interpretation of the rule and its violations is final.

8. Every time the Community House is opened, there shall be a person over twenty in charge.
